

Agenda
Protecting Civilians in Urban Warfare

Towards a political declaration to address the humanitarian harm arising from the use of explosive weapons in populated areas

Geneva Consultations,
06 - 08 April 2022,
Room XVIII - Palais des Nations, Geneva

This agenda is structured around the accompanying Revision Two of the draft Political Declaration on Strengthening the Protection of Civilians from the Humanitarian Consequences Arising from the Use of Explosive Weapons in Populated Areas.

Delegations are invited to target interventions on specific aspects of the revised Draft Political Declaration on a section-by-section basis, offering language for inclusion or amendment. Given the advanced stage of the consultations, general remarks are not considered necessary. All items will remain open throughout the consultations.

The submission of specific written proposals on the text are welcome in advance of the consultations. They can be sent to GenevaConsultations@dfa.ie.

Interpretation services will be provided throughout the consultations. If your delegation intends to deliver a pre-prepared intervention please provide the text in advance to GenevaConsultations@dfa.ie for the interpreters.

The consultations will take place in an in-person format. The meeting will be live-streamed via the links provided in the Aide Memoire.

Agenda

1. Opening of the meeting and introduction by Chair
2. Exchange of Views Part A: Section 1
3. Exchange of Views Part A: Section 2
4. Exchange of Views Part B: Section 3
5. Exchange of Views Part B: Section 4
6. Concluding remarks and next steps